Public Schools Show an Increase of Fifty

WORK STARTED MONDAY IN ALL GRADES SCHOOL

Many New Pupils Are Enrolled For Work Here

CARRUTH IS PLEASED

Many Faculty Members Attend College In Summer

Attendance in the Canyon public schools has increased about 50 over the enrollment of last year, stated Supt. Irby Carruth, yesterday. The total enrollment now stands at around the 600 mark. More pupils will enroll as families move here for the opening of W. T. on the 18th.

Much of the increase is due to the new families who have moved to Canyon for school purposes, stated Mr. Carruth.

Real estate men report that there has been a large demand for rent houses this fall, and that they anticipate practically all desirable houses to be rented before the opening of the College.

"The work has started off in fine shape," commented Mr. Carruth. "I am highly pleased with the enthusiasm of both the teachers and the pupils as the year's work starts."

Many of the public school faculty members attended college during the summer months, and return with new ambitions for the betterment of the schools.

Registration started Friday, continuing through Saturday and was finished up Monday when many of the new students came for enrollment. The busses to the rural districts made the first trip Saturday in order to bring in the pupils for enrolling purposes.

The football boys, who spent last week in pre-school training, were increased in numbers by the opening of school Monday. Coach Jones has his squad working hard this week getting ready for the first game with Dumas on the 22nd of this month.

The work in all departments was organized by Tuesday, and class work started on Tuesday.

The Eagles Tale will start publication next week as a regular page in The Canyon News. It is the oldest high school page in the Panhandle and will start its 9th year.

CCC Companies To Have Exhibit At Tri-State Fair

The two CCC Companies at the Palo Duro State Park will maintain a booth at the Tri-State Fair featuring an exhibit of the handiwork of the camp members.

Walter Hardin, educational director of Co. 1828, and B. A. Myers, educational director of Co. 1821, in connection with the Canyon Chamber of Commerce have charge of arrangement of the exhibit. The exhibit will contain actual reproductions of the sights of the Park as well as many other interesting articles.

No Funds Have Been Received For Relief Work

All relief work has been shut down in Randall county since last week when funds were exhausted. Work on the Goodnight Trail was stopped first, and since that time all money for direct relief has been exhausted.

County Administrator, H. S. Strain has called upon the State Relief Commission for funds, but has not received assurance of any.

W. T. BUFFALOES STARTED TRAINING MONDAY

Cattle Buying On Two Days Per Week

Fridays and Saturdays Set Aside for Randall County

Cattle will be bought in Randall county two days every week under a new program started this week. Friday and Saturday has been designated as the days for Randall county. Potter county was eliminated from the four-county program, and a buying force designated to work in Randall, Deaf Smith and Oldham counties.

This week cattle will be bought in Randall county on Friday in the country, and at the stock pens on Saturday. Arrangements for next week will not be completed for a few days.

The quota still remains at 300 for each two-day buying period.

Potter county has been given a separate buying crew for the purpose of delivering cattle to the canning plant in Amarillo. The other counties of the Plains are shipping to various sections as designated by the government.

No indication has been given as to how much longer the cattle buying program will continue. While most of the herds of Northwest Texas have been pretty well culled during the buying campaign, the shortage of feed and the high prices of all kinds of feeds have caused many farmers and stockmen to sell cattle which they would otherwise keep. The ranges are not coming out as fast as was anticipated following the rains, and this will no doubt cause many farmers to sell more cattle than they indicated.

No indication has been given as to how long the present three-county arrangement will be carried on.

Usery Home Entered Sunday Evening and Jewelry Is Stolen

While the family was away, the home of Dan K. Usery was entered Sunday evening, and several pieces of jewelry, together with a little money was taken. Two watches, and several rings were among the items missing.

Entrance was gained through the front door. Instead of turning on the lights, matches were used by the thieves in finding their way around the home.

Several finger prints were taken by Frank Hicks in the hope of locating the robbers.

Sky is Black As Norther Sweeps Plains Sunday

The worst duster in many months swept over the Plains Sunday afternoon, with a norther which caused the temperature to tumble from 40 to 50 degrees within three hours' time.

The temperature was the highest seen since the rains throughout Sunday afternoon. The norther reached Canyon at 5:30 and the high gale continued until midnight.

No rain resulted in this part of the Panhandle.

BOYS ARRESTED FOR BREAKING INTO HOME

Melvin Eastwood, Bill Stice, Raymond Stallings and F. A. McFarland were arrested Monday charged with breaking into the W. P. Jensen home near Umbarger Sunday and taking several articles of jewelry. Young Eastwood received a suspended sentence during the second week of district court on another charge of burglary.

May Be 'Baby' Senator

With the Democratic nomination in his grasp, Rush D. Holt, above, has an excellent chance of winning the election and the distinction of being the youngest U. S. senator in history. The 29-year-old West Virginian was nominated over eight other candidates.

Filling Station Operator Arrested and Booze Taken

Several bottles of booze were unearthed at a filling station north of Canyon Saturday and Victor Underwood was placed in jail. He came from Floydada several months ago and started the station.

Bond had not been completed for him yesterday, and he was being held in jail.

Buffalo Court Gets Under Construction For Men

BAGGETT IS ELATED

Football Men Being Used On Construction of Court

Whipping in shape for a strenuous football season, and building the Buffalo Court has given Coach Al Baggett's football pupils plenty of exercise since the opening of the training camp Monday.

Thirty-six men responded to the call for fall training, headed by Captain John Walker, 210-pound tackle from Spearman.

"The men are working hard, and showing up well during the opening of the training period," stated Coach Baggett yesterday. Coaches Baggett and Bob Cox are putting the men through the process of hardening during the preliminary training period, and are pleased with the enthusiasm with which the men are responding.

While not on the football field, the men are busy piling rock for Buffalo Court, which got underway of construction this week. The foundation for the first unit was completed last week.

The Court is being sponsored by the Canyon Athletic Club, headed by C. H. Jarrett. Rocks and petrified wood have been assembled during the summer, and now construction is actually under way. The first construction is for the rooms which will be used in housing the athletes. Gus Miller is in charge of the construction work.

"The response to the building fund has been fine," stated Mr. Jarrett yesterday. He urges that Canyon people drive down to the campus and view the work that is (Continued on last page)

Duo of Dazzling Dahlia Dolls

It's hard to decide which are the prettiest, blond Margaret Grainger, left, and Vicki Campbell, or the dahlia dolls they display. These flowers, a new variety named "El Encanto" (meaning "charm") are being displayed at a Los Angeles dahlia show.

Centennial Group To Meet Saturday On Call Of Hill

Dr. J. A. Hill has called the Centennial committee of the 31st Senatorial District to meet in Amarillo Saturday to make plans for a celebration to be held in this section of the state during next year.

Cousins and Randall Halls Being Filled With Girls

Indications point to a large attendance at the College this fall for only fourteen more girls can be accommodated at Cousins Hall and Randall Co-operative Home has ninety-six places reserved and applications are being received each day.

Many private homes are already full and inquiries are coming each day for houses, lighthousekeeping rooms and room and board. The FERA quota has been filled which will bring 91 young men and women to the city.

The College Farm boys had been chosen before Professor T. M. Moore left for his vacation. There are about 40 in this group.

Although most members of the faculty are out of town on short outings, the college officials who are in town are taking care of all visitors who are seeking information and help in connection with the opening of the fall semester. Several dozen people have been in the offices every day since the summer session closed, making their arrangements to come to college this fall.

Guy Harp Starts Term as Acting Postmaster Here

Guy Harp assumed charge of the Canyon postoffice Saturday when he replaced Oscar Hunt who has served in every Republican administration since 1907. Mr. Harp is designated as acting postmaster until congress meets when he will be commissioned for a four year term.

All employees in the local office are under civil service and no changes will be made in the force which has been serving for several years.

Evetts Haley Here Collecting Materials on New Book

Evetts Haley of Austin was here several days last week collecting materials for the life of Colonel Chas. C. Goodnight, which he is writing.

Haley was a very close friend of Colonel Goodnight, and spent much time with him during the last days of the Colonel's life. They made several trips together, and a great amount of information was dictated to Haley of the early history of the Plains.

The book will be ready for publication sometime next year.

Housing Act Is Described Tuesday In Amarillo Talk

Mayor C. R. Burrow was in Amarillo Tuesday afternoon attending a meeting conducted by R. A. Stuart of Fort Worth, who explained the features of the new housing act.

Loans will be made under certain conditions by banks to those who wish to make repairs on their homes through partial loans from the government.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mary, of Fort Worth, spent the week end with J. C. Baker and family; Mr. Mary is Mrs. Baker's brother.

W. H. Upchurch and family returned Monday from Chicago where they attended the Fair.

FARMERS LIST WITH COUNTY AGENT AT ONCE

Quota Will Be Set For County and State Thereafter

BLANKS ARE READY

Will Buy Ewes Only In The Sheep Buying Program

Sheep buying will start in Randall county as soon as a quota is set for the state and county.

Under the present plan, it is very necessary that all farmers who have ewes to sell to the government list them with County Agent W. H. Upchurch. As soon as the list is compiled, it will be submitted to the state office at College Station.

The government will buy only ewes one year old, and female angola goats over 1 year old. The government will buy no lambs, weathers or bucks.

Mr. Upchurch has the necessary blanks for listing the sheep of Randall county and urges that all sheep owners see him at once in order that the list may be completed.

The following instructions were received Tuesday:

"Sheep and goats will not be purchased until producers have listed with the County Agent the number of sheep and goats they will have for sale. A summary of these applications will be made by the County Agent and sent to the State Drouth office at College Station and it will in turn be sent to the Regional Sheep office, where state and county quotas will be established. As quotas are established they will be furnished to the County Agent and then you will start buying."

Old Barn Taken From Southwest Corner Square

The last loads of the old livery stable which stood at the southwest corner of the public square was moved Tuesday, being taken to the G. G. Foster farm east of Wayside. The lots are being cleared of the remains of the oldest business house which stood in Canyon.

Before leaving on his vacation trip, Mr. Foster was undecided whether or not he would build on these lots at the present time. He has contemplated an office building, but had reached no decision before leaving.

The old building was used for a livery stable for many years, and later occupied by R. E. Foster for a garage and filling station.

More Members Are Added to Panhandle Plains Hist. Group

The names of five Canyon people have been added to the list of annual members of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society.

They are Mrs. Tom Knighton, Carl Laughery, R. E. Ball, Erel J. Dunn, and J. A. Gillis.

Between 40,000 and 50,000 visitors including representatives from practically every state in the Union and 18 foreign countries, have viewed the many collections in the museum during the past sixteen months.

Judge W. R. Ely was in the Panhandle again last week looking over the highways. He has made several trips here, and in each instance has displayed his friendship toward this section of the state. Judge Ely is the oldest man on the State Highway Commission. His term will expire next year. If he is not re-appointed, the Panhandle stands to lose much that it has gained through the friendship and interest of Judge Ely. Chairman Woods of the Commission clearly indicates that he is not particularly interested in the Panhandle. Of course there will be many men after the job which Judge Ely holds. The salary connected with it is a minor consideration, but there is considerable honor, and great political power in being a member of the State Highway Commission. The Panhandle of Texas elected James V. Allred to the Governor's office. In naming a man for the Highway Commission Mr. Allred should take into consideration this fact, and re-appoint Judge Ely to the commission. Regardless of any staunch supporter in West Texas who may desire the job, there is not a man in this territory who can better get the job done than Judge Ely.

Much is being said about cleaning up the movies, and the movement is justified. However, the producers will likely soon be able to determine from the box office receipts whether or not the people will pay for the better class of pictures which are being produced. Advertising the fabulous salaries paid the movie stars has done much to stimulate the public to demand something more of these stars than that they merely expose practically nude bodies on the screen, and crack questionable jokes. While reforming the movies, those behind this movement should look over the news stands and note the contents of some of the magazines which are being read by the boys and girls.

It looks like a strike is a mighty poor method to settle an argument. In fact, it is as foolish as a fist fight or a war, both of which never pay. In the strike, we see men out of employment, their families suffering, perhaps engaging in street brawls; the factory owners subject to insult, their property damaged by violence and idleness. But that is not all; the producers of raw materials used by the factories are suffering, as well as the transportation companies, and perhaps the public which uses the manufactured products. Some time we shall learn better how to settle industrial disputes than through this expensive means.

And now we have with us the American Liberty League with Al Smith et al formulating plans to carry on a decided campaign against President Roosevelt. A terrific bombardment will be made against the policies of the President, lead by the disappointed politicians of both the Democratic and Republican parties.

THERE WAS A TIME

Lloydada Hesperian: Now that the matter of who was for and who was against the sales tax has been settled to the gratification of some and the satisfaction of others, it might be well to recall a little history.

There was a time about two years ago when it appeared that the schools of the state would have to close and even the administrative functions of the state be severely crippled. Taxes had ceased to come in, there was a serious doubt as to most business being able to keep their doors open, banks were going broke in every city and hamlet. In fact, except for a little dribble of sales of the necessities of life, stagnation had overtaken the entire economic structure. In the dire situation, to keep the school doors open, to care for the inmates of the eleemosynary institutions, to keep the administrative offices of the states and subdivision open, to pay the costs of the judiciary system, governors, lieutenant governors, senators and representatives, citizens in general, were casting about for means of obtaining more revenue. It was then that the sales tax in its many phases was taken up and discussed from every angle. For a few weeks the matter hung in the balance, and at one time there was a pretty general understanding at Austin that the sales tax as a last resort would have to be adopted. Happily the situation cleared up a bit and there is no probability now that a sales tax will be adopted. Nobody really wanted a sales tax but most everybody felt it was inevitable. Then it was that Mr. Hunter dictated but did not read the letter that cost him the governorship. He was in the boat with all the rest of those who kept abreast of the times at Austin—governor, legislators, department heads, and all—except, of course, Mr. Allred.

C. C. McDonald was a candidate for Governor, and during the campaign never referred to any of his six opponents. He made the race upon his own merits. In a public statement he deplores the terrible mudslinging which was carried on throughout the campaign. Mr. McDonald would make it a criminal offense for candidates or their friends to make charges during the final days of the campaign when it was impossible for the opponent to answer. Hundreds of Texas newspapers have carried editorials regretting the mudslinging campaign which was carried on this year. All agree that something should be done to correct this situation.

Selling Texas the idea of a monster Centennial celebration in 1936 is being accomplished through a great publicity campaign which is being entered into by the state committee. Every county is being organized in order that local citizens may arouse the people of Texas to the importance of this occasion, and to the responsibility of each section in making this event attractive for the people of the nation. Panhandle citizens will take more interest in the Centennial with the realization that a pageant depicting the history of this section will be given, probably at the Palo Duro State Park, which will be a small Centennial celebration within itself.

There was not quite such a large turn over in the Texas legislature this year as two years ago, although more members were defeated this year than usual. Two years ago a larger number saw the hand writing on the wall for the "ins" and decided to quit before the voters requested them to. As the legislature now stands, only a small percent have seen more than two terms of service. The people throw up their hats, and have much to say about the governor's race, but neglect to elect experienced legislators who are directly responsible for the passage of their laws.

The candidate who attempts to make a campaign without a loud speaker will make no impression in future campaigns, or at least until something else is invented in the way of an improvement. The radio has about ruined political gatherings. Not many people will go into a crowded hall on a hot summer night to listen to a candidate when they may sit at home in comfort and listen to the address. Science has played a great part in changing political campaigns.

Jim Ferguson agrees to retire as National Committeeman from Texas as Vice President John Garner will accept the post. It was gracious of Jim to accept the mandate before receiving the toe of the Democratic party's boot. Jim also announces that his paper, The Ferguson Forum, will fold up and quit if the people do not come to his rescue. As The News stated last week, it is pretty evident that Texas has had enough of Jim after twenty years under his control.

Many farmers are cutting the Russian thistle and either stacking, or baling it, for winter hay. It is reported that a little salt scattered in the thistle will help preserve it, and cattle will relish it much more during the winter months.

HEALTH PRESSURE COOKER FOR CANNING

Canning under steam pressure by means of the Health Pressure Cooker is endorsed by every well informed expert. The United States Department of Agriculture says that it is the only safe method of cold pack canning. The reason for this is that the high temperatures and steam under pressure effectually kills disease breeding germs such as the deadly microbe that causes ptomaine poisoning. Complete directions for canning with time schedule and recipes accompany each National Pressure Cooker.

100th BIRTHDAY

The stout-hearted Texans who declared Independence on March 2, 1836, at Washington-on-the-Brazos would be filled with pride to know that their efforts have not gone unrequited. Texans, today, are stout-hearted! Today they prepare for a birthday of a hundred years of achievement on the battlefield and in peaceful achievement.

Texas is a land of romance, love and adventure; of progress and memories. This hundredth anniversary will link its airways, seaports, highways and railroads of today with the oleander and jasmine of old-world towns of yesterday!

Texas started on its road of independence at San Jacinto. She fought valiantly through the years for worldly recognition and now is going to give a birthday party for the world, whose respect she has earnestly desired and so courageously won!

All Americans everywhere revere the memory of the men who contributed to the growth of our common country. We invite them to join us in holding a fitting celebration of the one hundredth birthday of Texas.

Texas is the State it is! Because Texans have made it so! This is YOUR Celebration! It is YOUR State!

Wayside Items

After the heat of the past summer and the showers coming since, the weather is delightfully pleasant.

Some places still dry. Not moisture to break ground for wheat.

Row crops growing in some localities; others have perished for lack of moisture.

An immense crowd attended the annual picnic here last Friday. More than 2,000 people on the ground. Threatening weather prevented some from coming. Amarillo Canyon, Pampa and Tulla were among the places represented. Quite a few of the old settlers were out. Donkey ball game, rodeo, calf roping, riding broncos and yearlings were some of the attractions.

A severe dust storm from the West came late Sunday afternoon. After that the wind changed to the north and gave us our first regular norther.

G. W. Franklin is still in a critical condition. He is being taken to Amarillo for treatment twice a week. His children have all been notified of his condition. Mrs. Ruth Childress and family came last week. Mrs. Edith Kerlin came Monday.

Mrs. Lou Gillham is able to be up part time. Dick Howard is with her.

"Work and Play" Club sold pies Friday, and made $14.00.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

In Coming World Series, Different Techniques of Managing and Ball Playing May Be Pitted Against Each Other

BY PHILIP MARTIN

WITH the Giants and Tigers shaping up as the opponents in the coming world series, the spotlight plays upon two teams that are about as far apart from each other, in playing and managerial methods, as the poles.

When Bill Terry, Giant manager, and Mickey Cochrane, pilot of the Tigers, took over their respective jobs, their teams weren't conceded a look-in as pennant possibilities. But though totally different in temperament and manner of handling their men, Bill and the Mick both brought their players up in front.

Terry is more the executive type of manager. A competent business man, he runs a Memphis oil company during off-seasons. This trait has been reflected in his career. Every base hit he ever made, every run he ever scored, were just more arguments in his favor when his contract came up for renewal.

Taking over, in 1932, an eighth-place team from McGraw, he built it into a flag and World Series winner in 1933.

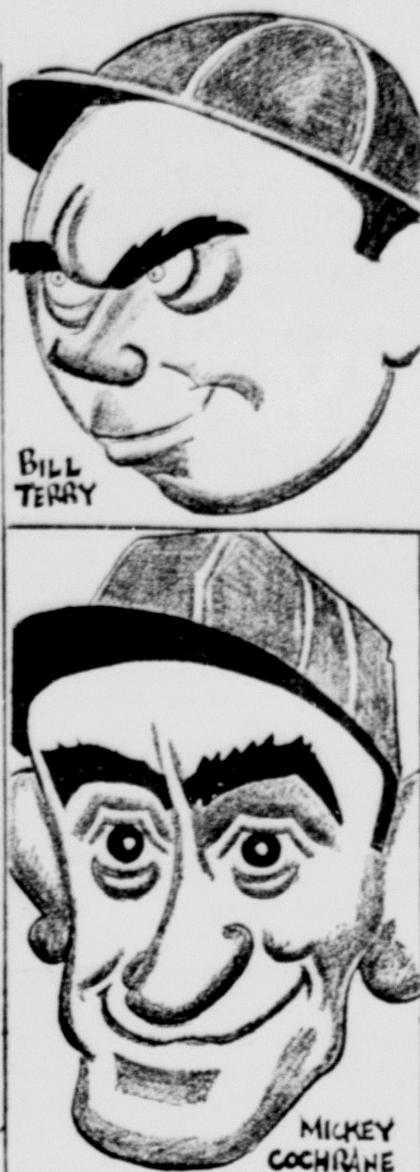

While not aloof from his men, Terry isn't intimate with them, though he's always looking out for their end.

Mickey Cochrane is a different type. His team, which he built from a fifth-place runner into a strong pennant contender, regards "Mike" affectionately. He's an affable fellow, and often seeks advice of some of his older players.

THE teams themselves are just as different. The Tigers have a strong infield and a weak outfield; the Giants, vice versa.

And their technique differs. The Tigers play a daring, base-stealing, devil-may-care type of game. They're likely to play a tight game for a while, then forge ahead suddenly with an armful of runs.

The calmness usually associated with older heads prevails with the more experienced Giants. Ahead by a slight margin, they play a cautious game, avoiding any reckless move that would kill their lead. The fact that this year the Giants may set a new low in base-stealing illustrates Fighting a field of America's best amateur golfers, George T. Dunlap, Jr., left, of New York, will have to step to keep the crown he won last year. Bill Terry, manager of the New York Giants, and Mickey Cochrane, Detroit Tigers' pilot, may have different ways of doing things, but both have put their teams up front.

And so you have two widely varying types of teams, and just as different managers, to place your dough on. It's a toss-up, as far as your correspondent is concerned.

A HOST of amateur golfers from all sections of the country will descend upon the Brookline, Mass., Country Club within a few days to take part in the 1934

United States amateur tournament. Able American simon pures, totaling 754 in all, will participate in the annual classic.

Of this small army, only 13, a select group made up of ex-champs and outstanding stars, will be excused from the sectional qualifying rounds.

George T. Dunlap, Jr., of New York, who won the title at Cincinnati last year, will be the defending champion.

A Home-Grown Pitchfork

This pitchfork is really a mulberry tree in disguise. Used at perfume factories for pitching roses from wagons, the implement comes from a French nursery where the trees are grown, cut and peeled, tied into this shape and then dried in an oven to temper the wood. ### THANKS FRIENDS

To the West Side Club, and friends: It is our destiny to part, but we wish to say to you that our lives have been brightened in having known you. As we go to our future home, we will have many pleasant memories of the times we have met together, and with Miss Bass. We wish to thank each of you for the pleasant farewell party given in our honor at the home of Mrs. Gordon-Cummings, and for the useful purse that was presented. We wish you continued success in your club work.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Snider.

More than a third of a ton of tuna, and the biggest yet caught with rod and reel—that's what this catch, made by Thomas Howell, above, represents. ### Heiresses Vie for Headlines

Three society girls figured prominently in recent news. Mrs. Rachel Lynch Clews Munger, left, 19-year-old heiress to a $30,000,000 chain store fortune, culminated an unexpected marriage and a speedy separation with a Reno divorce from her explorer-husband, John Elliott Munger. Colletta Mulvihill, 17-year-old blond Pittsburgh oil heiress, on a dare, married Thomas Green, truck driver, with whom she is shown at center. And Janet Bowen White, right, 21-year-old Detroit society girl, was found working as a waitress in a roadside restaurant several days after she was reported missing.

MARK OF FIRE PROTECTION

Next time you buy building materials, electrical apparatus, fire extinguishers or a hundred other articles, find out if they bear the mark of approval of the Underwriters' Laboratories.

It isn't a trade-mark designed to sell you any particular brand or product. It is simply a mark of protection. The Underwriters' Laboratories are a non-profit-making organization, created by the fire insurance industry to carry on experiments to increase the safety of all kinds of materials and home and factory equipment from the standpoint of fire risk and accident.

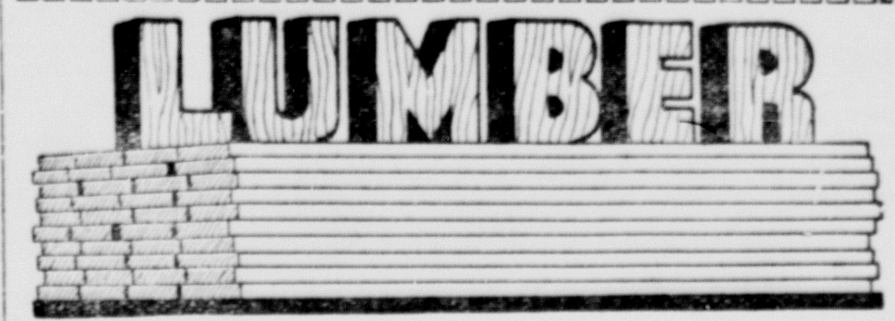

They test everything from safes to toasters—and from the facts obtained establish standards of safety. These standards are not unreasonable. When the Laboratories give approval of an article, it does not necessarily mean that it is the best obtainable. But it does mean that it represents a degree of safety that is essential to the preservation of life and property.

They carry on their work quietly and undramatically, and they produce results. They have shown manufacturers how to eliminate many of the hazards that used to be associated with building materials—they have eliminated dangers that were once part of a thousand and one ordinary household "gadgets." They have helped design vaults that can suffer the most intense heat without damage to their contents—and roofing materials that offer a cold reception to a spark.

Work of this kind, continuously and conscientiously carried on, is of immense benefit to the American people. It has made life safer for us all—and it deserves the widest possible recognition and acceptance.

Many Bands to Compete at Tri-State Fair Show

Bands by the score, each accompanied by large delegations, will be here, September 15-22, for the Tri-State Fair.

Every section of the region served by the second largest exposition in Texas will be presented.

It will be a "free gate" fair.

Interest in the 1934 fair never was more intense, according to Mason King and Bill Beechler, who have just completed a long tour of the Panhandle, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

"I predict the greatest attendance in the fair's history," declared Beechler, chairman of the association's reception committee.

"Everywhere we went there was unusual enthusiasm over the 1934 greater exposition," added King, director of racing.

As president of the exposition this year, Wilbur C. Hawk has arranged larger premiums and more attractions.

"There will be full exhibits in every department," said Mr. Hawk. "Even the worst-hit drought counties are sending agricultural displays."

The livestock show probably will be the best, because famous herds have been entered to compete for increased cash prizes. Approximately $15,000 is offered to Hereford exhibitors alone.

Prizes in all departments will be equally liberal.

Requests for entry blanks have come from far and wide.

Seven days of racing with entries from all of the major tracks, Tom Mix, screen star, heading the Sam B. Dill three-ring circus; a motor show offering capital prizes; a carnival company, two baseball games with the House of David tournament-winning team, a baby show, choral contests and other attractions have been arranged for entertainment of the crowds.

Birthplace of Oil Industry

On the spot marked by this monument, in Titusville, Pa., the "first oil well ever drilled" came in with a roar 75 years ago Aug. 27, ushering in a 14-billion dollar industry. Accordingly, the city of Titusville celebrated a Diamond Jubilee of Oil, commemorating the discovery and honoring "Colonel" Edwin L. Drake, inset, whose "crack-brained scheme" of drilling for oil met with success.

Merchants Miss An Opportunity When Irregular in Ads

Karl E. Kilby, publisher of the Raton (N. M.) Range, directed the following striking message to retail merchants to emphasize the necessity of regularity in advertising as in every other business endeavor:

"You sweep out, you trim the windows, you dust off the counters, you make up new price cards, you unpack and arrange new stock, you plan your merchandise showings, you do these and a hundred other necessary jobs REGULARLY in the normal conduct of your business."

"But how about the biggest job of all—contacting the people and telling them repeatedly that you are in business and have the goods they need. Do you do that REGULARLY? Do you figure you are going to get your share of the available business if you don't tell folks about your merchandise or your service at REGULAR intervals instead of doing the job spasmodically or not at all?"

"By all known tests, experience and thousands of records, the acknowledged best-of-all medium for REGULARITY is advertising in the local newspaper. A newspaper going REGULARLY into the homes of your possible customers, not only in your city but the surrounding territory as well, makes it easy enough for anyone to see how your newspaper offers you the finest kind of a vehicle for carrying your business message REGULARLY to the people.

"And don't think these folks will miss your REGULARITY of advertising. They look for their newspaper REGULARLY. READ IT REGULARLY, study its advertising (yours, if it's there) REGULARLY."

"And what's more, you'll find they are buying fairly REGULARLY, too, if you'll just check up, especially with the advertisers who do use space REGULARLY."

"YOURS FOR MORE REGULARITY IN ADVERTISING."

In Wake of Illinois Tornado

This huge tree, snapped like a twig and hurled against an adjoining home in Jacksonville, Ill., was one of the calling cards left by a fierce tornado which ripped across four counties in western Illinois, reaping a toll in damage of more than $500,000. Seven persons were seriously hurt and hundreds rendered homeless by the storm.

Two Rains Add to the Moisture of Past 10 Days

Rain on Thursday and Saturday added 43 of an inch to the splendid rains of the past ten days. These rains make a total of 2.88 inches in Canyon since August 21. The rain on Thursday amounted to .33 of an inch and on Saturday a shower of .10 was added.

The lightest spot in the county is in the Ralph community where only a little more than a quarter inch rain has fallen.

Heavy rains have fallen in various sections of the Panhandle, assuming the proportions of cloudbursts. Channing received such a flood early last week, while Clarendon received another on Saturday.

Row crops have started a fine growth which will make a lot of feed if favored with a late frost. It is not anticipated that there will be much grain on this crop, but many farmers will have a large amount of roughage.

Wheat acreage will be the largest in the history of the county. The government will allow the farmers all the wheat they wish for pasture, but they must confine their cutting next year to the acreage which comes under the allotment. Wheat pasture will be about all the grazing many farmers will have during the winter.

The ranges are not coming out as rapidly as anticipated last week. Most of the pastures were grazed too close during the continued drouth, and it is unlikely that many of them afford much winter pasture. It looks now that little of the grass will come out sufficiently for grazing during the winter. It will be next spring before the results of the drouth on the ranges will be fully realized. If there is plenty of moisture during the winter, grass should come out in good form next spring; but if the winter is dry, grass will be short next year.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH THE MOTORIST?

Reports indicate that 1934 is seeing more men, women and children killed in automobile accidents than in any previous years. Figures supplied by the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters show that for the first six months of this year about 20 per cent more people were killed than in 1933, and the worst driving months are yet to come—September, October and November. In 1933, nearly 31,000 persons were killed. If you add 20 per cent to this number it will amount to 37,200, with more than 1,000,000 persons injured. The economic loss will jump into the billions.

What is the matter? It is not possible that the drivers of the country have ceased to think. They would not admit that they are willing to wipe out or cripple the population of a large city every year. Yet, they do so, and seemingly they don't care.

There must be some kind of a new germ in the air which infects us all. Perhaps it is the speed bug. In any event, it compels us all to dash somewhere or nowhere in our cars day or night for no pressing reason. Then we come back to the same place in the same hurry. If a man, woman or little child gets in the way, that is just too bad. If another car, or bus, or tree, or stone wall is in the way, that is just a tough break.

Our authorities have been liberal in the matter of driving rules and regulations. On the whole, drivers are legally allowed plenty of speed at all times. But this liberality does not extend to the point where the authorities are willing to have an army of people killed every year. The motorists of America

HOW TO MAKE A WILD WOMAN

WILL THEY CONTINUE

Home work is an important part of the child's course. Are his studying conditions at home of the best?

Poor light makes concentration difficult, brings on fatigue and drowsiness quickly and is damaging to young eyes.

In his eagerness to discern reading material in poor light, the child often falls into poor posture.

His home work done under favorable conditions, the child goes through the day with a smile and a sense of accomplishment without fatigue.

Sew, and Reap These Splendid Creations!

THERE'S MANY A SLIP—BUT THIS ONE, TOGETHER WITH ACCOMPANYING GOWNS, HAS SPECIAL APPEAL.

NOTHING lends enchantment to the moments spent in one's boudoir like lovely undergarments and negligees. A slip that's infinitely easy to make, and one that you'll enjoy creating, is that pictured as Pattern 163.

Worn under your early fall frocks, it will assure good figure lines. The squares pictured at the top of the slip may be made of lace, if desired. Silk, satin, and jersey are materials recommended for the garment.

It is designed in sizes 14, 16, 18 and 20 (with corresponding bust measures of 32, 34, 36 and 38) and also in 40 and 42. Size 18 requires 2 1/4 yards of 39-inch material plus 1 yard of 7-inch lace for the yoke squares and 1 yard of ribbon for the shoulder straps.

Two lovely gowns that can be made in either cotton or silk crepe are Patterns 149 and 150. Each is comfortable and easy to fashion. Pattern 149 is designed in four sizes: Small, 34-36; medium, 38-40; large, 42-44; extra large, 46-48. Size medium requires 4 yards of 35-inch material.

Pattern 150 is designed in five sizes: 11, 13, 15, 17 and 19, with corresponding bust measures of 29, 31, 33, 35 and 37. Size 13 calls for 3 1/4 yards of 35-inch material.

Mysterious Band Makes President Obey!
(It's Only Secret Service)

IF a little band of men were to issue orders to Hitler or Mussolini, they'd probably be jailed, or worse. Yet President Roosevelt, faced by the same situation, must take such orders—and like them. For that matter, every American president since McKinley has had to do the same.

For the bossy little clique in question is the U. S. Secret Service. And one of its most important jobs is to guard the president's life. If, in performing this duty, it becomes necessary for the Secret Service men to tell him what to do, he must obey them. Whether he likes to be "shadowed" doesn't matter; any protests he might make would be ignored politely but firmly.

Ever since an assassin shot President McKinley in Buffalo in 1901, no president has gone even the slightest distance unguarded. The Treasury Department, which controls the Secret Service, evidently regards the life of America's chief executive as highly as it does its money, for the protection of which the Secret Service was organized in 1860.

In vaults beneath the Secret Service headquarters in Washington, billions of the nation's dollars are concealed. Billions more lie in various sub-treasuries and banks throughout the country. It is the Service's duty to see that this supply of money is not added to nor depleted by dishonest means.

An important job of the 100-odd Secret Service men has been to convince criminals that they can't "make money" and get away with it. By smashing innumerable counterfeit rings, these federal detectives have saved the government millions of dollars. By uncovering frauds in federal offices, they have checked the loss of other millions.

BUT the task of felling potential presidential assassins and watching over Uncle Sam's wallet are prosaic chores compared with some of the glamorous assignments these sleuths have tackled. Secret Service men, for instance, rode with the original Ku Klux Klan in post-Civil War days. A few years later, they gathered evidence which helped break up the powerful "Molly Maguire" gang which terrorized Pennsylv-vania mining regions. They unearthed Spanish spy plots during the war days of '98; Mexican and German espionage systems during the World War.

IN size the personnel of the Secret Service is equal to the police force of a small city. But the mystery that shrouds it strikes fear to the heart of the criminal, who, more than anything else, fears the unknown. A large slice of the credit for the organization's efficiency goes to its veteran chief, William H. Moran. In fact, so valuable to the service is Mr. Moran regarded that several months ago, when the time came for him to retire after more than half a century in harness, President Roosevelt asked him to stay on for two more years.

EVERYBODY TALKS ABOUT THE WEATHER BUT NOBODY DOES ANYTHING ABOUT IT!

We scientifically match PHILLIPS 66 to your weather...and that is why neither heat wave nor sub-zero cold can rob your motor of peak performance.

When a blistering heat wave makes front page news... your motor doesn't mind the weather, if the tank is filled with Phillips 66... the greater gasoline.

During a month officially recorded by the U. S. Weather Bureau as the "hottest in seventy years," hundreds of thousands of drivers discovered the benefits of CONTROLLED VOLATILITY.

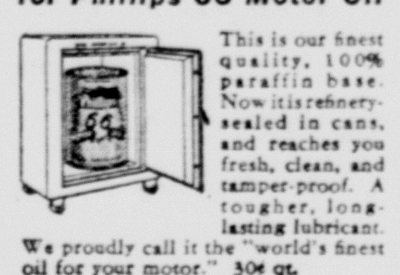

They marveled that their engines did not overheat or knock, that speed and power were undiminished. They will be just as pleasantly surprised this Winter, when their motors start with split-second speed on mornings away below zero.

SEPTEMBER GRAVITY (or high-test ratings) 64.3... ANTI-KNOCK RATING 70 OCTANE

Phillips was FIRST to break the vicious connection between bad weather and bad engine-performance. With our pioneer process of CONTROLLED VOLATILITY, the weather may change but motor efficiency does not... because Phillips 66 Gasoline is changed in advance, "custom tailored" or pre-adjusted at the refinery to make engines do their best regardless of climate.

One trial tankful, at any Orange and Black 66 Shield, will quickly give you facts about extra anti-knock and miles, added power and speed... without extra cost... Yes, you will actually feel the difference in your engine!

Great Variety of Entertainment Is Offered at Fair

More major attractions are offered by the Tri-State Fair, in Amarillo, September 15-22, than ever before in its history.

And the entertainment takes a wider scope, too.

Turf fans from far and near are interested, of course, in the exposition's racing program. Seven races a day for seven days are on this program with entries from all the major tracks.

With legalized wagering there's an added thrill when the thoroughbreds thunder down the home-stretch and one's judgment is balanced by a nose.

There will be other sports—wrestling, boxing and baseball. Excellent wrestling and boxing cards will be staged.

That bewhiskered House of David tournament winning baseball team will be here for two games on the exposition grounds, one with the Amarillo Merchants on Thursday morning, September 20, and one with Borger's Phillips 66, Saturday morning, September 22.

Tom Mix, screen star, heads the Sam B. Dill three ring circus, which will give two performances daily during the fair. Mix and his marvelous mount, Tony, will appear in five different acts at each performance. There are several other stars with the circus.

The Western States carnival company with 17 shows and 14 thrilling rides, will be on the midway throughout the seven days.

A motor show, which is offering such capital prizes as a new car, a radio, and sets of tires, will be another attraction. Many contests also are planned.

Among the contests is a "Bettie Babies" show, with doctors and nurses as judges.

Choral contests will be conducted by the fair's newest department, music. The chorus numbers will be broadcast. Any senior or junior chorus is eligible to compete.

Wilbur C. Hawk, who inaugurated the "free gate" policy of the fair, which has grown into the second largest exposition in Texas, is President of the association this year.

Mrs. A. H. Word of Spearman visited last week at the parental John Knight home. She accompanied Mrs. Knight to Hereford to spend the week end at the Wederbrook home.

Miss Lois Goodrich returned Sunday by plane from New York where she has been spending the summer.

Mrs. O. G. Steen was brought home Sunday from Amarillo where she had an operation for appendicitis last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Warren and children of Cisco visited last week at the parental R. A. Warren home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Snider left Monday for Albany, Oregon, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Lon Davis and son of Floydada spent the week end here with relatives.

Processing Tax Adds Greatly to Prices of Meats

Carl Laughery talked at the Rotary luncheon Tuesday telling the effect of the processing tax which goes to the farmers in the hog control campaign started by the government. Whereas the cost of delivering pork on the block formerly ran around 6 cents per pound, the cost now has reached 15 cents. As a result all pork prices have advanced in this degree. Mr. Laughery expects beef prices to advance in like proportion.

"I have been in the meat business a long while, and used to think I knew something about it," stated Mr. Laughery. And he added that this was probably true of every man in every line of business. Mr. Laughery gave an interesting talk on the various phases of the meat business, concluding with the statement that never in his experience were profits so low on all phases of the business as they are now.

Oscar Gano, chairman of the classification committee, indicated that there were about 35 classifications in Canyon which were open for membership.

President Bob Jarrett reported on the trip of himself, J. H. Cox, Jr., and Lee Johnson to the inter-city meeting at Lubbock last Wednesday night.

John Schramm was introduced as a new member of the club.

The trip proposed to Tulla Tuesday night was called off on account of conflicting dates.

The following visitors were introduced: C. Willard Smith, I. H. Davies, Jess Sanders, N. S. Griggs, all of Amarillo; C. H. Cavness of San Antonio.

Windbreak Eaten, New Fodder Found

GATE, Okla., Sept. 1.—Cattle ate up a windbreak and thus the value of a stock feed was discovered.

This feed is the common tumbleweed or Russian thistle, which during the recent drought afforded the only sustenance for starving herds in the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandles. But the windbreak discovery was made when other fodder was available.

A farmer living near Gate had built a windbreak by packing down great stacks of thistle between two wire fences. Water from melting snow seeped into the windbreak, moistening the thistles, and it was discovered the cattle preferred to nibble from the windbreak instead of eating other available fodder.

Now, with little other fodder available in the Plains country, the farmers and ranchmen are stacking tumbleweed, salting it down in layers. The salt makes the feed more palatable and aids in retention of moisture in the stems. So great are some of the hardy weeds that one plant makes a heavy pitchforkful.

Miss Esther Rudolph left yesterday morning for her school work in the Rio Grande Valley. She was accompanied by Miss Mattie Swayne who will go to San Antonio to visit friends until the opening of the fall term of the college.

Yet day by day your taste changes in all you wear and do. You don't like the same books, enjoy the same movies, choose the same underwear, prefer the same soap you did a short while ago. You are so used to the better, you wonder why you liked the old.
